v. Permanent Existence

The death, lunacy or insolvency of any member of the family does not affect the existence of the business of Joint Hindu Family. The family goes on doing its business.

vi. Implied Authority of Karta

In a joint family firm, only Karta has the implied authority to enter into a contract for debts and pledge the property of the firm for the ordinary purpose of the businesses of the firm.

vii. Minor also a co-parcener

In a Joint Hindu Family firm even a new born baby can be a co-parcener.

viii. Dissolution

The Joint Hindu Family business can be dissolved only at the will of all the members of the family. Any single member has no right to get the business dissolved.

5.02 Meaning and Definition of Partnership

Introduction

Partnership form of organisation is an extension of the sole proprietorship. It has already been explained that a sole proprietary form of organisation suffers from several drawbacks such as limited capital, limited managerial ability, concentrated risk and less chances for expansion and growth etc. With the result, the sole trader is compelled to seek the co-operation of others so that he can meet the changing situations effectively. Generally when a sole trader finds it difficult to handle the problems of growth
