ii. Transfer of Outdated Technology

Where MNCs transfer outdated technology to host nation, it serves no purpose.

iii. No Benefit to Poor People

MNCs produce only those things, which are used by the rich. Therefore, poor people of host countries do not get, generally, any benefit, out of MNCs.

iv. Danger to Independence

Initially MNCs help the Government of the host country, in a number of ways; and then gradually start interfering in the political affairs of the host country. There is, then, an implicit danger to the independence of the host country, in the long-run.

v. Deprivation of Job Opportunity of Local People

MNCs may not generate job opportunities to the people of home country.

vi. Misuse of Mighty Status

MNCs are powerful economic entities. They can afford to bear losses for a long while, in the hope of earning huge profits-once they have ended local competition and achieved monopoly. This may be the dirty marketing strategy of MNCs to wipe off local competitors from the host country.

vii. Careless Exploitation of Natural Resources

MNCs tend to use the natural resources of the host country carelessly. They cause rapid depletion of some of the non-renewable natural resources of the host country. In this way, MNCs cause a permanent damage to the economic development of the host country.

viii. Selfish Promotion of Alien Culture

MNCs tend to promote alien culture in host country to sell their products. They make people forget about their own cultural heritage. In India, e.g. MNCs have created a taste for synthetic food, soft drinks etc. This promotion of foreign culture by MNCs is injurious to the health of people also.

ix. Neglect of Industrial and Economic Growth of Home Country

An investment in host countries is more profitable, MNCs may neglect home countries industrial and economic development.
