France

French parliament adopted a bill that requires public companies making at least 50 million Euros in turnover and employing more than 500 workers to have 40% female Board representation by 2017.

Germany

In November 2013, Germany's Christian Democrats and Social Democrats agreed on a gender quota on supervisory Boards where, issuers would be required to have women comprise 30% of nonexecutive directors by 2016. The planned legislation would require firms that don't meet the 30% mark to leave those seats vacant. The latest G20/ OECD principles encourages measures such as voluntary targets, disclosure requirements,

Boardroom quotas and private initiatives that enhance gender diversity on Boards and in senior management.
