www.tntextbooks.in

1. Forwarding Agent

2. Commission Agents

3. Export Trading House

1. Forwarding Agent

Forwarding agent is appointed by exporter to fulfill the customs and shipping related formalities and certain logistic functions.

1. Enlightening exporters on the relevant trade laws
2. Supplying transport, handling cost information to exporter.
3. Assisting exporter in packing, marking and labeling.
4. Arranging transport for exporter
5. Assisting in fulfilling customs formalities
6. Preparing and procuring documents
7. Exposing exporter on the developments happening in transportation.

2. Commission Agents

Commission Agent is an international agent who is paid a certain percentage of commission for the order booked by him abroad. He offers product to potential customers in the territory allotted to him in accordance with the terms and condition specified by the principal. However there is no employment relationship between the agent and the principal and the relationship is purely temporary. The agents gets only commission at the end of the deal.

3. Export Trading House

Export Trading House has been established to increase the export, strengthen the global market, capacity and get necessary facilities for increasing export performance of our country. It consists of merchants, exporters, trading companies, export oriented units, units located in export processing zones, electronic hardware technology park etc.

Functions/Services of Export house

The functions of export house are mentioned below

1. Identifying potential market for a product
2. Finding buyers and their agent and eliciting their response for export proposal.
3. Establishing product specification in the light of market needs, standards and regulation in accordance with suppliers capabilities.
4. Determining appropriate mode of transportation and routing keeping in mind the cost, quality of service and security
5. Preparing the goods for delivery at destination
6. Determining buyer's creditworthiness
7. Negotiating the transactions
8. Arranging proper insurance coverage against maritime risks and currency fluctuations
9. Financing the transactions and paying for goods and service received.
10. Preparing document for international trade
11. Settling claim.