(v) Pay-in slip

When cash or cheque is deposited in bank, a form is to be filled by a customer and submitted to the banker along with cash or cheque. This is called as pay-in slip or deposit slip. The main part of this will be retained by the bank and the counterfoil duly stamped and signed by the banker is returned to the customer.

(vi) Cheque

Cheque is a negotiable instrument. Cheque book is issued by a bank to its customers for withdrawing money for own use or for making payment to others. By issue of cheque, a bank is directed to pay a specific amount of money from a person's account either to the same person or to the person in whose favour the cheque has been issued. Each cheque book has record slips for entering the details of cheques issued. It remains with the account holder for future reference.
