(i) Date

In the date column, the date of purchases of goods on credit is recorded.

(ii) Particulars

In this column the name of the supplier from whom goods have been purchased and details of goods purchased are given. It contains the name, quantity, quality and rate of goods purchased, trade discount and any other specification and specialties of the goods are recorded in this column.

(iii) Invoice number

Invoice is the statement prepared by the seller of goods. It contains details about the goods, its price and other expenses incurred. The invoice number is entered in this column.

(iv) Ledger Folio (L.F.)

The page number of the ledger in which the supplier's account appears is recorded in this column. Purchases of goods must be posted to the personal accounts of suppliers. Purchases book contains the page number of supplier's account in the ledger. It helps in posting and also in checking the records.

(v) Amount column (Details)

Amount column is divided into two parts, i.e., details and total. The details column is used to record the amount of various individual items purchased from a particular supplier. The amount of trade discount allowed is deducted. This column is used for adjustment of additions and subtractions.

(vi) Total amount column (Total)

The net amount payable to the supplier of goods is recorded in the total amount column.

6.5.1 Invoice

Entries in the purchases day book are made from invoices which are popularly known as bills. Invoice is a business document or bill or statement, prepared and sent by the seller to the buyer giving the details of goods sold, such as quantity, quality, price, total value, etc. Thus, the invoice is a source document of prime entry both for the buyer and the seller.
