Items shown on the debit side of profit and loss account are as follows:

(i) Gross loss

If trading account discloses gross loss, it is shown on the debit side of the profit and loss account.

(ii) Indirect expenses

Expenses which are not connected with purchase of goods are indirect expenses, i.e., expenses incurred in administration, office, selling and distribution of goods are indirect expenses.

(a) Office and administrative expenses

Expenses incurred for office and administration such as salary of office employees, office rent, lighting, postage, printing, legal charges, audit fee, depreciation and maintenance of office equipment, etc. are classified as office and administrative expenses.

(b) Selling and distribution expenses

Expenses incurred for selling, promotion of sales and distribution of goods such as advertisement charges, commission to salesmen, carriage outwards, bad debts, godown rent, packing charges, etc., are classified as selling and distribution expenses.

(c) Other indirect expenses and losses

The expenses such as interest on loan, repair charges, depreciation, charity, loss on sale of fixed assets and abnormal losses such as loss due to fire, theft, etc. not covered by insurance are shown under this category.

Items shown on the credit side of profit and loss account are as follows:

(i) Gross profit

The first item on the credit side of profit and loss account is the gross profit brought down from the trading account if there is gross profit.

(ii) Other incomes and gains

All items of indirect incomes and gains are shown on the credit side of the profit and loss account. Income from investments, rent earned, discount received, commission earned, interest earned and dividend received are indirect incomes. Profit on sale of fixed assets and investments are examples of gains.

12.4.3 Closing of profit and loss account

After debiting indirect expenses and losses and crediting all indirect incomes and gains, if the total of the credit side of the profit and loss account exceeds the debit side, the difference is termed as net profit. On the other hand, if the total in the debit side exceeds the credit side, the difference is termed as net loss. Net profit or net loss is transferred to the capital account.
