www.tntextbooks.in

5.9.3. The Workspace

The workspace is the area in the document window to enter or type the text of your document. Figure 5.10 Shows the workspace area in the document window.

5.9.4. Scroll bars - The scroll bars are used to scroll the workspace horizontally or vertically. Figure 5.10 shows the Scroll bars.

5.9.5. Corners and borders

The corners and borders of the window helps to drag and resize the windows. The mouse pointer changes to a double headed arrow when positioned over a border or a corner. Drag the border or corner in the direction indicated by the double headed arrow to the desired size as shown in Figure 5.10. The window canbe resized by dragging the corners diagonally across the screen.

5.10. Explore the Computer

5.10.1. Start Menu

In the lower left-hand corner of the windows screen is the Start button. When you click on the button, the Start menu will appear. Using the start menu, you can start any application.

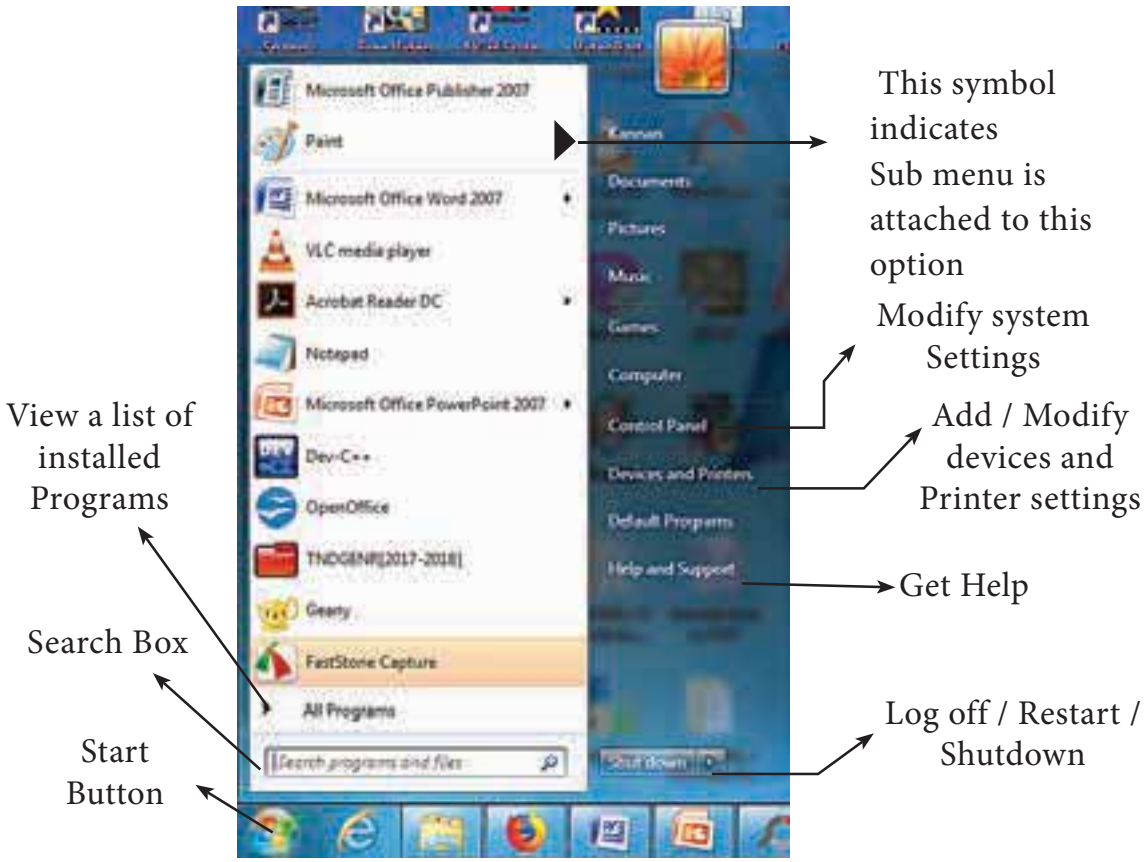

Figure 5.12 - Start Menu

Taskbar

At the bottom of the screen is a horizontal bar called the taskbar. This bar contains (from left to right) the Start button, shortcuts to various programs, minimized programs and in the extreme right corner you can see the system tray which consist of volume