www.tntextbooks.in

Mechanism:

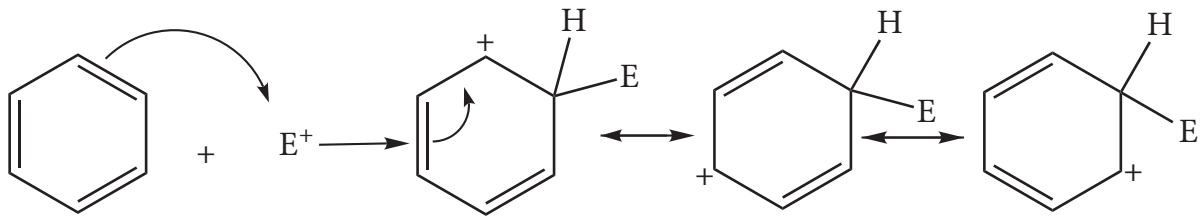

Step: 1

Formulation of the electrophile

$$E\text{-}Nu + Catalyst \longrightarrow E^{+} + Nu\text{-}Catalyst$$

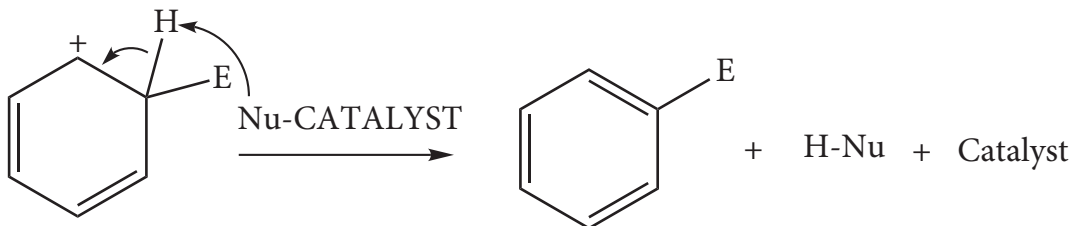

Step:2

The electrophile attacks the aromatic ring to form a carbocation intermediate which is stabilized by resonance.

Step: 3

Loss of proton gives the substitution product.

Evaluate Yourself

21) Why benzene undergoes electrophilic substitution reaction where asalkenes undergoes addition reaction?