Female Flower Bracteate, ebracteolate, pedicellate, female flowers (open for fourteen days) found towards the apical portion of inflorescence, actinomorphic, incomplete and hypogynous.

Perianth: Tepals 3, apophyllous, green valvate.

Androecium: Absent but staminode is present.

Gynoecium: Tricarpellary, syncarpous, ovary superior, distinctly trilobed, trilocular, covered with spiny outgrowth, single large ovule in each locule on axile placentation, style three with three bifid stigma.

Figure 5.16: Ricinus communis

11th Botany_EM_Chapter 5.indd 131 06/01/2023 19:43:51