7. Public Deposits

Public deposits are more beneficial than the fixed deposit in the bank, in the matter of yielding good return. An investor has to select the investment period very carefully. He/she is not allowed to withdraw money before maturity. However the public deposits collected by companies and institutions do not offer any insurance benefits. It does not come under the control of the Reserve Bank of India. The investors who are willing to invest for long term can opt for public deposits.

8. Bonds

Bonds are one of the ideal investment options for those investors who would like to invest their hard earned money safely. Bonds are issued both by government and public and private sector companies and financial institutions. Mostly there are four types of bonds sold in India namely Government bonds, Corporate bonds, Banks and other financial institutions bond and Tax saving bonds. The term bond is used for the debt collected by the government while the term debenture is used when the corporates collect debt capital from the public.Investment in bonds is totally risk free.

9. Unit Linked Insurance Plans (ULIP)

ULIP is a life insurance linked product, which provides risk cover for the policy holder along with investment options to invest in any number of qualified investments such as stocks, bonds or mutual funds.

10. Bank Deposits

Fixed deposits (FD) enable the investor to invest the money for a specific period. The Fixed deposit can be opened from a minimum period of 7 days to a maximum period of 10 years. The fixed deposit holder can take loan against the fixed deposit receipt. The depositor cannot withdraw the fixed deposits before the maturity date.

Recurring deposit (RD) account is another investment option for those people who earn regular income. This deposit can be opened for a minimum period of 1 year to a maximum period of 10 years. The Recurring deposit holder can take loan against the instalments paid.
