25.07 Types of International Business

On the basis of sale and purchase of goods and services, international trade can be divided into three kinds. They are export trade, import trade and entrepot trade. It has been exhibited in the chart drawn below

These trades are briefly stated hereunder

A) Export Trade

When the firm of country sells goods and services to a firm of another country it is called export trade. Export trade indicates selling of goods and services from the home country to a foreign country. For Example; the sale of handicraft, leather products, electronic goods, herbal products, etc., by Indian company to other countries is known as export trade.

B) Import Trade

When the business firm of a country purchases goods from the firm of another country it is called import trade. Importing means purchase of foreign products and bringing them into one's home country. For example when Indian enterprise purchases petroleum products, electrical goods, machinery, and medical equipments etc., from other countries, it is termed as Import Trade

C) Entrepot Trade

When the firm of country imports goods for the purpose of exporting the same goods to the firms of some other country with or without making any change in the goods meant for export it is known as entrepot trade
