2. Fill in the blanks choosing the words from the box given and complete the summary of the poem:

The poet Okara in this narrative monologue painfully condemns the (a)_____ displayed by adults, both in their words and actions. Here, a father laments to his son about the negative changes that creep into the attitude and behaviour of humans, when they grow into (b)_____. He says that people used to be (c)_____ when they laugh and the honesty would be reflected in their eyes. But, people of modern times laugh (d)_____. Their handshakes used to be warm and happy conveying a sense of togetherness, but nowadays the handshakes have become a mere (e)_____. He warns his son that people are not trust-worthy and have become so selfish that they are concerned only about their own (f)_____ benefits.

People utter words of welcome and exchange (g)_____, but those words come only from the tip of their tongues and not from the depth of their hearts. Humans have learnt the art of changing their (h)_____expressions according to situations merely to ensure social acceptance. They wear(i)_____ and exhibit multiple faces. The narrator admits that he has also changed into a hypocrite. However, he tells his son that though he (j)_____ his expressions, he does all these against his will. He says he wants to become a (k)_____again and laugh genuinely. He wants to (l)_____ the unreal things and (m)_____how to laugh as he had done once upon a time. When he laughs before the (n)_____, he sees no expression. His teeth are bare like that of the (o)_____ of a snake. So, he asks his son to show him how to laugh the way he used to laugh, when he was a kid like him.
