Administrative law that enable the public officers to separate law and procedure from private individuals. These laws also make an attempt to interpret the privileges of government officials. When any dispute arises between a citizen and government servant the administrative court resolves the issue with administrative laws.

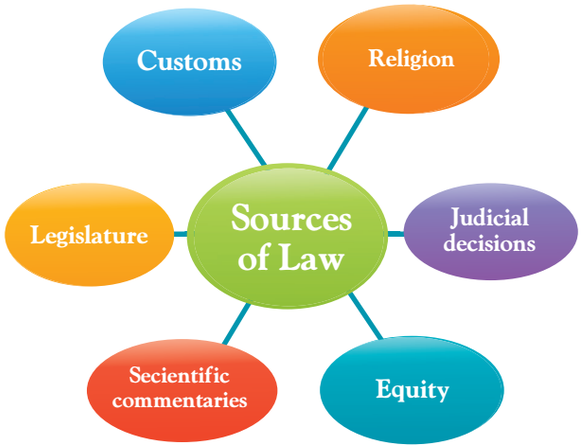

viii. International Laws

The rule that determine the conduct of the civilized states in their relation with other states in international arena is otherwise called International law. There are no such framed laws that govern international relations but backed by public opinion and the rule of UNO as an international body matters for any nation to enjoy its sovereign status. There are also laws such as Sea law, where there are International borders and as well Air law that demands aircraft of other nation to fly with permission of respective nations.

4.1.4 The sources of Law

i. Customs

Customs play an important role in the framing of the laws. Most of the laws that came from customs are recognized by state later. State cannot actually ignore the customs of the country. The common law of England for example sprang mainly from customs.

For example Bull-Taming sport culture of Tamils of India resulted into the creation of Jallikattu Law in 2017. (Read the box for more information about Jallikattu Law of 2017)
