(iii) Debit note

A buyer may return the goods to the seller in various situations such as when goods are defective or damaged, goods do not meet the specifications, etc. When goods are returned by a buyer, the buyer prepares a debit note and sends it to the seller. It contains details such as the description of the goods, quantity returned and also their value. Two copies are prepared in general, one copy is sent to the seller and another one is retained by the buyer. It is a document issued by a buyer stating the amount owed by the seller. A debit note is also called as debit memo.
