Think: A customer has returned the goods to his supplier along with a debit note. But, the supplier does not agree with the customer's claim that the goods are damaged. Can the customer consider his debit note as a valid source document and enter the purchases returns?

(iv) Credit note

It is a statement prepared by the seller who receives back from his customer the goods sold. It contains details such as the description of the goods, quantity returned and also their value. It is a document sent by a seller to the buyer, stating that a certain amount is owed to the buyer. It is also called as credit memo.
