- Liberty is usually defined as the Freedom from arbitrary or undue external restraint.
- By applying the legal maxim, Ejusdem Generis, the general word 'freedom' under article 19 derives its color and texture from the paricular words used with it whereas under article 21, there are no such particular words used.

Two Phases Of Liberty

Positive liberty: Positive liberty mean freedom to do something that the individual should have rights and opportunities to develop his personality.

Negative Liberty: For J.S. Mill liberty means Negative liberty He submitted that there should not be any restraint imposed upon man and his actions. He also asserted that there should not be any hindrance in the path of man.

i.Natural Liberty

Natural liberty means absence of all restraint –an unrestrained freedom to do whatever one likes.

ii. Civil Liberty

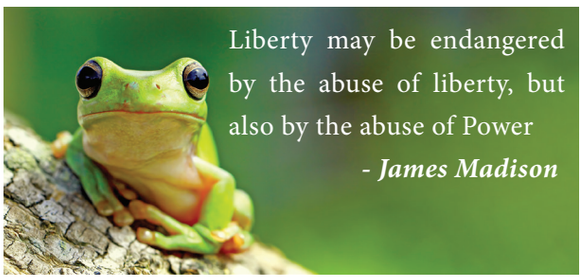

The concept of civil liberty reflects "Rule of law". It denotes the enjoyment of our rights within the limits of law. The protection of civil liberty is guaranteed by the laws of the state.

iii. Political Liberty

The concept of political liberty means liberty of citizen to participate in the political life and the affairs of the state. These rights are the right to vote, the right to contest elections, the right to hold public views and criticize the government and right to petitions.

iv. Personal Liberty

The individual can act as he pleases without being under any type of arbitrary and illegitimate restraint. It also means that every individual has the right not to permit any other individual to interfere in the affairs of his personal life . Every individual should have the the liberty to dress, food, standard of living, marriage and education of children etc. The state should not interfere in the personal matters.
