The functions of the RBI can be grouped under three heads.

A. Leadership and Supervisory Functions
B. Traditional Functions and
C. Promotional Functions.

A. Leadership and Supervisory Functions

India being the fastest growing economy in the world, India is expected to play a major role in the world affairs by many countries. RBI being the banking institutional head of India has to be a part of global institutions. It has to transform the quality and size of banks in India to the level of banks in developed countries. Such functions get prominence in current scenario.

1. India's Representative in World Financial Institutions

In order to maintain consistency and harmony with international banking standards the RBI is associated with Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS, Switzerland) since 1997. RBI represents Government of India in International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD i.e. World Bank) and International Monetary Fund (IMF) in which India is a member since December 27, 1945.

2. Regulator and Supervisor of Indian Banking System

The broad guidelines for all banking operations in the country are formulated by the RBI. The RBI has power to issue licenses, control and supervise commercial banks under the RBI Act, 1934 and the Banking Regulation Act, 1949. It conducts inspection of the commercial banks and calls for returns and other necessary information from them.

3. Monetary Authority

The RBI formulates, implements and monitors the monetary policy of the country in order to maintain price stability, controlling inflationary trends and economic growth. It provides advices to the Government concerning agricultural finance, resource mobilization for implementing plans and legislation affecting banking and credit and international finance.

4. Closely Monitoring Economic Parameters

Broad economic parameters such as employment level, price levels and
